PRESS ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES FOR THE 13. EUROPEAN NATIONS CHAMPIONSHIPS IN BRANDENBURG AN DER HAVEL

The accreditation period starts on 01.06. 2018 and ends on 01.08. 2018. This period must be observed urgently! For all requests that reach us after this date, we cannot guarantee accreditation. For the issuance of a press accreditation for the 13. European Nations Championships in Brandenburg an der Havel the following valid press cards will be accepted:

- Deutscher Journalisten-Verband (DJV)
- Ver.di Vereinigte Dienstleistungsgewerkschaft FB Medien / DJU
- Verband Deutscher Sportjournalisten (VDS)
- Bundesverband Deutscher Zeitungsverleger (BDZV)
- Verband der Zeitschriftenverleger (VDZ)
- International Federation of Journalists (IFJ)
- Association Internationale de la Presse Sportive (AIPS)
- Freelens

Photographers and journalists can also legitimize themselves with a written order from an editorial office (original letterhead with address) or an imprint bearing their name.

The Organising Committee of the 13th European Nations Championships reserves the right to examine all accreditation requests and, if necessary, to consult the above associations.

Not accredited will be:

- Persons without any journalistic legitimation-
- Accompanying persons of journalists without a journalistic assignment
- Persons with press passes from associations and organisations other than those mentioned above-
- Persons with house cards from broadcasters, agencies or publishing houses without an order from the editorial staff
- People who can only identify themselves with business cards.

Please note that even an admission to our press distribution list in advance does not automatically mean the receipt of a press ticket.

Each accreditation is personal and may not be passed on. The Organising Committee reserves the right to cancel accreditation with immediate effect in such cases.

The final decision on the acceptance or rejection of the accreditation application will be made after the end of the accreditation phase and will be communicated in good time.
